FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 12/03/2009

ALFREDO RODRIGUEZ, 11349 Southwest 86 Lane, Miami, Florida 33173, telephone (305) 409-7997, date of birth, 04/12/1954, social security number 453-49-9253. RODRIGUEZ was advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and Assistant United States Attorney [REDACTED]. RODRIGUEZ was then provided with the FD-395, advice of rights form, and advised of his rights pursuant to the form by agents at approximately 2:30 PM. RODRIGUEZ signed the written waiver of rights at approximately 2:31 PM. He then provided the following information.

RODRIGUEZ advised that he had been told by [REDACTED] not to discuss what had occurred at the home of [REDACTED] approximately 3-4 months after he was fired from his position as house manager in March 2005. RODRIGUEZ further advised that [REDACTED] also told him not to contact anyone else about what had occurred at the home. RODRIGUEZ explained that one of his last contacts with anyone in [REDACTED] organization was in 2005 when he contacted [REDACTED] regarding a letter of reference. In addition, RODRIGUEZ explained that after receiving a subpoena in the civil litigation, he contacted [REDACTED] approximately ten (10) months ago, in early 2009. After receiving the subpoena and alerting [REDACTED] organization, RODRIGUEZ was then contacted by attorney [REDACTED] (phonetic) concerning legal representation. RODRIGUEZ advised that he declined representation by [REDACTED]. He did not alert the attorney to the existence of the black bound book or handwritten notes that agents seized on November 3, 2009.

RODRIGUEZ was asked about the nature, circumstances, and content of the black bound book and handwritten notes agents seized. RODRIGUEZ explained that his first contact with law enforcement regarding the [REDACTED] investigation was with the Palm Beach Police Department and Detective [REDACTED]. He explained that he had been subpoenaed by the State Attorney's Office and that he turned papers over to [REDACTED] several years ago. RODRIGUEZ explained that the black bound book that was seized by agents on November 3, 2009 was not among the documents he turned over to the detective. RODRIGUEZ advised that he realized or remembered that he had possession of the black book approximately 5-6 months ago and had first come into possession of it during the time he was employed with [REDACTED] between 2004-2005.

In describing the handwritten notes on legal pad paper that were also seized, RODRIGUEZ advised that the content or lists were compiled from other hand written notes that he once had but has since thrown away. RODRIGUEZ noted that some of the names or contacts on the lists were not contained within the black book. RODRIGUEZ explained that [REDACTED] on the handwritten lists came from his personal notes regarding payments he had made to [REDACTED] during his employment with [REDACTED]. RODRIGUEZ explained that [REDACTED] would instruct him to go to the bank and withdraw a specified amount of funds. [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] would then instruct RODRIGUEZ as to whom to make payment and in what amount.

MOTION TO SEAL

COMES NOW the United States of America, by and through the undersigned Assistant United States Attorney, and hereby requests this Honorable Court to seal the attached Complaint and affidavit with the exception of a copy of the Warrant for Arrest to be provided to the U.S. Marshals Service and law enforcement agent whose name is noted on the Arrest Warrant, relative to the above captioned matter until such time as the defendant is arrested or until further order of the Court. The defendant is a target of an on-going investigation and early release of the complaint would compromise the investigation and lead those involved in the crime to elude law enforcement.

Epstein's ex-butler sentenced to 18 months for trying to sell billionaire sex offender's journal for $50K

By JANE MUSGRAVE

Palm Beach Post Staff Writer

Updated: 4:35 p.m. Friday, June 18, 2010

Posted: 11:59 a.m. Friday, June 18, 2010

A former houseman of billionaire sex offender Jeffrey Epstein Friday received the same 18-month sentence as his onetime employer.

However, while Epstein was sentenced to 18 months in jail for sexually exploiting underage girls, Alfredo Rodriguez got the same sentence for trying to sell a journal that recorded the Palm Beacher's sexual dalliances.

U.S. District Judge Kenneth Marra acknowledged that it didn't make sense to give Rodriguez a longer sentence than Epstein. However, had Rodriguez given investigators the journal when they asked for it, Epstein might not have received such a light sentence, the judge said.

"If the information had come to light sooner, Mr. Epstein's situation would have turned out differently," Marra said.

Instead, Rodriguez, 56, tried to sell the journal for $50,000 to an attorney who is representing one of nearly two dozen women who filed civil lawsuits against Epstein. Further, on March 18, the same day he pleaded guilty to obstructing justice, the Kendall man was arrested in Miami for possession of guns that federal agents believed were used in an illegal firearms smuggling ring. He is expected to plead guilty to those charges, said Assistant U.S. Attorney Ann Marie Villafana.

She described Rodriguez's failure to produce the journal as an opportunity lost for the federal government's investigation of Epstein. A federal grand jury was investigating whether young girls were being brought to Epstein's mansion along the Intracoastal Waterway from other states. Some of the information in the journal and information Rodriguez provided after his arrest seemed to confirm those suspicions.

Whether the journal could have been used to slap Epstein with charges that could have sent him to prison for decades, is unknown, Villafana said.

"Would it have significantly advanced the ball? Yes," she said.

Instead, federal prosecutors halted the grand jury investigation and cut a deal with the 57-year-old high-flying money manager. He pleaded guilty to two state charges and served 13 months of an 18-month sentence. In addition, he agreed to pay for attorneys to represent some of the young women who claim they were brought to his mansion for sexually charged massages when they were as young as 14. Some of the women hired their own attorneys.

Of the nearly two dozen lawsuits that were filed, Epstein has settled all but seven and also reached agreements with 12 women who elected not to file suit.

72-mm-113327 - 44

Federal public defender Dave Brannon, who represented Rodriguez, suggested his client's financial problems - which prompted him to seek illicit ways to make money - were the result of his association with Epstein. Until this year, he had been a law-abiding citizen.

Having worked for the wealthy for years, none would hire him after they learned that he had worked for Epstein.

"None of the wealthy wanted anything to do with anyone who was associated with what went on in Mr. Epstein's house," Brannon said.

b6

Detective [redacted] Columbus Ohio Police Department, 120 Marconi Boulevard, Columbus, Ohio, phone, [redacted] [redacted] was interviewed telephonically regarding the homicide investigation of Arthur Shapiro. [redacted] advised that Shapiro was a Columbus attorney who was killed in the mid-1980's in Columbus. [redacted] was not one of the original detectives assigned to the case but came on board in the mid-1990'S after a city commission was formed to investigate allegations of misconduct by the city's then police chief. As a result of the commission's investigation, documents relating to the Shapiro homicide were seized from a commander's office. [redacted] became involved in the homicide investigation at that time. It was determined that Shapiro was involved in misconduct and fraudulent business activity with the firm where he was employed. Specifically, it was believed Shapiro was helping businessmen purchase companies that were facing bankruptcy and creating illegal tax shelters. [redacted] believed Shapiro had been subpoenaed to testify before a federal grand jury regarding those business activities and was to appear before the grand jury the day after he was killed. Regarding the circumstances of his death, Shapiro was seen meeting with an unknown man believed to be the killer in his vehicle first in a shopping center and then in a Columbus cemetery. In the cemetery, Shapiro fled from the vehicle to a nearby condominium complex where he was shot multiple times. Shapiro's car was later found in the shopping center parking lot. Investigation revealed that Barry Kessler, a business associate of Shapiro's, was seen meeting with a man at Kessler's office fitting the description of the man seen with Shapiro before he was killed. A secretary of Kessler saw Kessler meeting with the man in his office with a suitcase or briefcase of money. Kessler was subsequently convicted of murder for pecuniary gain in federal court in Florida relating to a life insurance policy of a business associate. Though no sufficient evidence to charge Kessler was uncovered, [redacted] believed Kessler was complicit or responsible for Shapiro's death. In the mid-1990'S, prominent [redacted] name was published in the local newspaper, alleging some connection to the Shapiro's death. [redacted] found no evidence connecting [redacted] to the homicide case. In addition, [redacted] investigation has revealed no connection between the homicide of Shapiro and [redacted] to date.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent [redacted] on October 26, 2010.

Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] U.S. Attorney's Office, 303 Marconi Boulevard, Columbus, Ohio, telephone, [redacted] was interviewed telephonically regarding Arthur Shapiro. [redacted] advised that Shapiro was a target of a tax fraud case being prosecuted by the U.S. Attorney's office. Specifically, the case was an administrative case investigated by the IRS, whereby fraudulent or bogus tax shelters were created. Shapiro was an attorney, and Berry Kessler was an accountant and co-defendant in the case. Prior to Shapiro's death, Shapiro, his attorney, and [redacted] had agreed to a negotiated plea agreement whereby Shapiro was to plead guilty to tax fraud. [redacted] could not recall if Shapiro's cooperation against co-defendants was a condition of his plea agreement. Shapiro was killed prior to him entering a guilty plea in the case. Co-defendant Kessler eventually pled guilty to the tax fraud. Attorney [redacted] (phonetic) represented Berry Kessler in the tax case, and [redacted] informed [redacted] of Shapiro's intention to plead guilty prior to Shapiro's death. [redacted] was unfamiliar with the specifics of Shapiro's murder and was not involved in the case but understand many in the Columbus area suspected Kessler of the murder. [redacted] was unsure if there was a third co-defendant in the tax fraud case.
